Mystery Model Revealed:

Rehabilitated Stray Urban Chicken to Wear Fashions Designed by Project Runway Winner Seth Aaron Henderson

...at the sixth anniversary of DoveLewis' Boutiques Unleashed, April 1

In years past we've showcased models as large as a llama, as distinctive as a goat and as soft and cuddly as a rabbit. This year, please join us in welcoming Phyllis, a chicken with a new lease on life and an even newer outfit.

Phyllis will wear a custom ensemble by fashion designer Seth Aaron Henderson, the winner of Lifetime's Project Runway, who we're welcoming back to the event!

The fashion show showcases Portland's top boutiques and designers for both people and animals. Models include: local celebrities, DoveLewis blood donor dogs, therapy animals and former patients. Plus this year, we're celebrating the 25th anniversary of the DoveLewis Pet Loss Support Program.

Could there be a better photo op than this?

Proceeds from Boutiques Unleashed benefit the DoveLewis Pet Loss Support Program. Launched in 1986 by the same certified grief counselor who runs it today, the program offers five, free drop-in group therapy sessions for grieving pet owners and veterinary professionals. The program director, Enid Traisman, MSW, is also the author of "Pet Remembrance Journal," available online at dovelewis.org.
