A Hole-in-One for PACTT

Our heartfelt thanks go to the DoveLewis staff, volunteers, and, of course, our PACTT teams, whose dedication made this year's DoveLewis Golf Tournament a tremendous success.

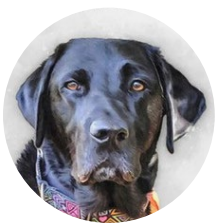

I want to extend our gratitude to our speaker, Allison Brown, Senior Deputy DA from Washington County. You helped make the DoveLewis Golf Tournament such a meaningful success. It has never been that quiet when we have had speakers before. Your remarks touched so many hearts.

We are also grateful to Langdon Farms for providing such a beautiful venue. Combined with perfect weather, it created an ideal setting for a beautiful day on the course.

Most importantly, we extend our appreciation to the generous donors and golfers whose support helps make our mission possible. Their participation and generosity continue to strengthen the lifesaving work of DoveLewis.

The tournament was a wonderful opportunity to celebrate our supporters, build meaningful connections, and recognize the community that stands behind our mission. Thank you to everyone who contributed their time, talent, and enthusiasm. You made this year's tournament truly unforgettable.
