The Best for Mock Rescue Situations

Teams were requested to help with the OHS Technical Animal Training this month. Our dogs were bandaged, wrapped, and helped with other mock situations that could occur when an animal needs rescuing in our communities or the wilderness.

OHS Technical Animal Rescue Team (OHSTAR) are made up of ex-military, a retired fire chief, a window washer, a pilot, quite a few DoveLewis staff led by Dr. Tauber and many other volunteers who train to help our pets in crisis.

Cuddle or Read to a Dog?

At a kindergarten class, the kids did some reading but quickly opted for cuddling and smothering Roger, who, of course, was more than fine with all of it. The teacher just loved him and loved how her kids were when he was in the room. She asked me (seriously) if we could just hang out all day or at least a few hours. They would treat us to school lunch if we stayed. We didn't go that far but the kids were so good. Every day brings something very sweet. - Dan and Roger

Roger is loved by everyone

Reading to the Dog is the best
