Roger, You came into our lives at the exact moment we needed you, and you completed our family in a way we couldn't have predicted. A lot has happened since we took you home on that fateful day in 2018 - we've lost and gained members of our pack, been locked down for a pandemic, and weathered storms we didn't know were coming. And you have helped us through all of it. A therapy dog for all, but especially for us, we love you and are so grateful you're ours. - Jenna & your pack

Sandy, my first fur baby, you're always there to give me a snuggle or a laugh or a nudge to give you a treat! In groups, you always pick the person who needs you the most and you stick by their side the entire time we are there. So sensitive to everyone around you, you are a treasure to all those who you meet and certainly to me. Love you SO very much!! - Kathi

Umalie, You are the best hiking partner, support system, and best friend anyone could ever ask for.
